UN CATÁLOGO LLENO DE PRODUCTOS, QUE TE RECUERDAN TU ORIGEN.

ESTADO: NEW JERSEY

Las mañanas con olor a tinto y panela las loncheras con jugo de guayaba las onces o medias nueves donde la abuela la variedad de frutas infinita para quitarte la sed los paquetes que te tocaba compartir con todos tus amigos los productos que te endulzaban las tardes de juego las marcas tradicionales que marcaron tu infancia

Cada recuerdo tiene un sabor que se quedará siempre contigo y que ahora, por encima de la distancia, tienes la oportunidad de revivir cada vez que quieras.

A top-down view of various chocolate-making ingredients. In the upper left, a small wooden bowl is filled with whole cacao beans. To its right, there are several pieces of dark chocolate, some broken into smaller chunks. Below the bowl, a large pile of fine cacao powder is visible. Scattered around these items are numerous cacao nibs and small pieces of chocolate. The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly a chocolate bar or a piece of parchment paper, with some areas appearing slightly wet or glossy.

A close-up photograph of a glass pitcher pouring a golden-brown liquid, likely tea, into a glass cup. The pitcher is tilted, and a stream of liquid is captured mid-pour. The cup is partially filled with the same liquid. In the foreground, a pile of dark, loose tea leaves is scattered on a light-colored surface. The background is softly blurred, showing hints of a kitchen or dining area. The overall lighting is warm and natural.
